Further Information on Risks:

There is a risk that frontpay management B.V. may no longer be able to meet its payment obligations or may have to temporarily suspend these obligations, due to lower income from trading activities. Due to lack of volatility or other unfavorable market conditions, there is a risk that frontpay management B.V. may not generate sufficient returns.

Additionally, there is a risk that changes in laws and regulations may limit frontpay management B.V.'s trading activities.

The bonds are not tradable on an exchange or platform and therefore have limited tradability: there is a risk that there may not be a buyer for your bond if you wish to divest your investment prematurely. This means you risk not being able to receive your money back at the desired time and may have to hold onto your investment longer or sell your bond at a lower price.

Early redemption: There is a risk of early redemption because frontpay management B.V. reserves the right, based on the bond terms, to redeem the bonds prematurely. This means as an investor that your bond may be redeemed early, potentially not achieving the full intended return.

There is a risk that the issuing institution may not have sufficient liquid assets remaining to pay the returns in full. This means as an investor that you may not receive the entire return and repayment on your bonds in case of frontpay management B.V. bankruptcy.

In case of bankruptcy of frontpay management B.V., as a bondholder, you are a concurrent creditor, meaning your claim ranks lower than preferred creditors. This means that in case of bankruptcy of frontpay management B.V., you may not receive the entire return and/or repayment on your bonds.

Limited equity: The equity of the issuing institution is currently limited. This means the equity buffer is small, so in case of disappointing results, the issuing institution may quickly fail to meet its obligations on the bonds.
